RECENT REFLECTIONS.

A marriage license was issued to Chas. M. Hornecker and Annie M. Cleveland, both of Manchester.

It is proposed that the few democrats left in Dickinson county be exhibited at the World's fair in 1893.

The third party scheme does not seem to be very enthusiastically received by the alliance republicans of this vicinity.

The next scare according to the Wichita Eagle will be that the catfish are injuring the corn by gnawing the young stalks.

A new band is being formed. It will make its appearance on Memorial day as a drum corps appendix to the procession.

We are indebted to the county Sunday school worker, C. D. Wood, for a copy of the proceedings of the State Sunday school convention.

The North Dickinson Sunday school institute has been postponed until next Sunday, May 31st, at which time the program as previously given will be carried out.

The city scales are ready for business and if the boys want to see how much their best girls weigh all that is necessary is to drive over on southside and have the figures put down.

BALLOTING ON CANDIDATES.

The Alliance Machinery in Motion for the Campaign.

This week has seen a beginning of the alliance campaign for next fall. The nominating machinery in the alliance, both farmers and citizens, is somewhat complicated and takes some time to accomplish its work. First the sub-alliances vote on their choice for candidates for each office. The returns are sent in to the central committee which selects 2 or 3 having the largest number of votes and remands those names back to the alliances to be again voted on. The result of this ballot decides who shall be the nominees.

The first step in the process is now going on and the last will come in July, when the ticket will be named in full. Several alliances have already declared their preference and others will soon. The citizens alliance of Abilene voted last evening. A REFLECTOR representative who gained admittance on the strength of his good looks says that the lodge expressed its preference as follows: For treasurer, W. L. Nixon; county clerk, Dr. C. W. Brooks; sheriff, B. M. Wallace; register, W. D. Nichols; surveyor, A. S. Phillips.

It is said that in alliances which have thus far voted Wallace, Nixon, Nichols and Phillips have a walk-away.

W. A. Birch wants to be sheriff badly and B. M. Anderson and C. C. Hutchinson, county clerk but it cannot yet be told how the thing will turn out.

The people's party candidates are putting in their time electioneering around among the various townships and keep their boot soles warm looking up supporters.

WORLD'S FAIR FUNDS.

Dickinson County Will do Its Share in Raising Them.

A meeting was held this afternoon in the court house for the purpose of discussing the World's fair matter and especially as regards Dickinson county's duty and ability to raise the $1,205 apportioned her. All present were enthusiastic in the matter and believed that the county would easily do her share.

Hon. H. C. Harvey was elected chairman and A. C. Romig secretary. After an outline of the plan after-ward followed, on motion it was decided to form the Dickinson County Columbian Exposition association with Sid G. Cooke, of Herington, president; H. C. Harvey permanent vice-president; A. C. Romig, secretary; W. L. Nixon treasurer.

On motion the members of the various township boards and the mayors and councilmen of the organized cities were made vice-presidents to look after the work in their respective districts.

A committee consisting of County Clerk M. H. Bert, County Treasurer W. L. Nixon and District Clerk A. L. Russell was appointed to apportion the $1,205 among the various townships and cities, notify the vice presidents of their appointment and request that the first 10 per cent be paid or guaranteed by June 13th.

Mr. Harvey personally guaranteed Flora township's amount. The association then adjourned to meet Saturday June 13th.

Sunday School Notes.

In spite of bad roads a goodly number of people gathered at Banner City to take part in the quarterly convention of the Southwest District Sunday School association.

After the opening exercises by Rev. J. D. Cole the program was taken up. Rev. Ford being absent, his was dropped.

In the absence of J. W. Gibson, County Worker Wood started the discussion on the duties of the superintendent. Mrs. M. P. Cooley being absent, A. S. Phillips presented the topic assigned to her.

County President J. H. Engle gave an excellent normal lesson on the Sunday School lesson for May 24. Rev. Palmer opened the question box which seemed to be of unusual interest and brought out some lively discussions.

Although some rain began to fall before the opening of the evening session a well filled house greeted Rev. Seabrook and listened to his lecture, which was interesting and inspiring. So closed what was said to be the best convention ever held in the southwest district.

County Worker Wood gave a normal lesson on "The Books of the Bible" at the Elmo church on Tuesday evening, May 19th.

Rev. S. E. Betts and J. H. Smith, of Herington and County Worker Wood will address meetings at the following places and times: May 31st at Chalk Creek school house, district 25 at 3 o'clock; McNaspy school house, at 3 p. m. and Woodbine at 8 p. m. All persons interested in solving the problem of how to reach the nine millions of children in the United States who are not in the Sunday school are invited to attend these meetings.

HONORING THE HEROES.

SUNDAY SERVICES IN MEMORY OF DEAD VETERANS.

The Opera House Filled with an Audience Gathered to Listen to the Exercises—Sermon by the Rev. W. L. Seabrook.

The shower of rain which came up just as it was time for the Sunday memorial services somewhat interfered with the prompt gathering of the audience, but in spite of all the opera house was well filled by 3:30 o'clock and the exercises were enjoyed by all. The auditorium and stage had been suitably decorated with flags, banners and flowers. The stage had a background of stars and stripes while great wreaths hung upon the speaker's desk.

Rev. S. Palmer presided and the G. A. R. attended in a body. Many members of the W. R. C. and Ladies of the G. A. R. were also present in a body, though the bad weather prevented full delegations from these orders.

After music by a choir of young people, Rev. F. S. Blayney, of the Presbyterian church, read the scripture lesson and followed with an earnest and inspiring prayer.

There was more music, after which came the sermon by the Rev. W. L. Seabrook, of the Lutheran church. Mr. Seabrook spoke without manuscript and impressed all with his earnestness. He took for his text Deut. viii, 2, "And thou shalt remember the way which the Lord, thy God, led thee." His address was one urging the close connection between patriotism and love of God. The men who fought the war for the union have now to hand down the lesson of love to the boys who are growing up. They can not do it properly without it is kept in view that God was through it all the supporter of the cause that finally won. There have been three great epochs in our national life. The first was that dating from the Plymouth rock landing which was to emphasize religious freedom. The second from the issuing of the Declaration of Independence, to emphasize civil liberty. The third comes from the emancipation and emphasizes complete liberty of the whole man, soul and body. The great temple of liberty which we have built is the grandest the world has or ever will see. Great names appear on its frontage—Washington, Lincoln, Grant. God was the architect and to him homage must ever be due. The veterans who took part in the war have a right to be proud of their work but they must also remember to be true to him who led them to victory and look to him to control and guide in the future as in the past.

Rev. J. T. Mayor made the closing prayer; there was another song and Rev. Blayney dismissed the audience with the benediction.

Enterprise College.

SPECIAL TO THE REFLECTOR.

ENTERPRISE, May 25.—Delegates from the German Baptist church were in Enterprise today to consult with the trustees of the college regarding the starting of school here in the fall. It is expected that the denomination will take charge of the institution and give one of the best schools in Kansas as it will send pupils here from all sections of Kansas, Nebraska and Missouri.

Will Not Be Closed.

The rumor has been current that the Pacific hotel would be closed soon. We are glad to be able to say that it is entirely unfounded. The Union Pacific railway company will give up its lease on the expiration, June 1st, but the hotel will continue to run and in first class shape, too. Further particulars can be given later. Abilene could ill afford to have the Pacific close. It is one of the best hotels in the state.

Bert Stanton's New Hotel.

The many Abilene friends of the Stanton, formerly of this city, will read with interest this from the K. C. Star:

O. B. Stanton, who has been associated with his father, H. H. Stanton, in the management of the Centropolis hotel, has leased the Livingston hotel at Dwight, Ills., and departed for that city with his family last night. The Livingston is a new house of about 100 rooms and is thoroughly furnished. Mr. Stanton having purchased the carpets and furniture in Kansas City. The employees of the new house were taken from Kansas City and are experienced hotel people. H. H. Stanton will continue in charge of the Centropolis. He has just finished the first year in the house and it was the only year in the history of the house that it was successfully run. He recently secured a long lease of the Centropolis.

The residence of O. J. Raub on North Buckeye, was exchanged for a choice farm in Polk county, Mo., yesterday by Henry Harger.

DIDN'T STOP HER.

A Lively Elopement Which Was Ample Successful.

Those who were at the depot as the midnight train pulled in last night may not have noticed a carriage which drove up on the south side of the track or the young man and young woman who alighted there from and stepped aboard the train without purchasing a ticket. The train had scarcely gone out of sight when another vehicle drove up—this with only a man in it, a grizzled farmer and he was more than disappointed to find that he could not also get aboard.

"I chased them for 20 miles," he said this morning as he was starting for home, "but I was just too late. The young feller is no good and I know it. He came to our place about three weeks ago and pretended to be looking for work. I employed him and I must say he did well."

"I sent him to Abilene two or three times with produce and he always brought back all the money. But one day he was seen down near town by a neighbor and was riding with my daughter whom I supposed was going to school in our district. I scolded him but it was no use. They went together several times and last night just after I had gone to bed I heard a noise in the barn. I didn't pay much attention for awhile; then I got uneasy and went out. Sure enough the carriage and team were gone. I hitched up the open buggy and went to the justice's, for I saw that Lettie was gone too. He told me that he had married the two and they had started toward Abilene. I saw their wagon ahead several times but they had the best horses and I could not catch them. I suppose they are headed for Dakota. He says he has a claim there."

The farmer refused to give his name but said he lived near the county line. The young man gave his name as Winthrop and was tall and good looking. He and his bride are probably happy somewhere over the state line.

TWO DIVORCES GRANTED.

District Court Resumes Its Grind of Business.

The proceedings of district court which commenced again today had little to enliven them except the consideration of two divorce cases which came up for trial. The first was that of Mary A. Chronister vs. John H. Chronister in which she put in a plea of abandonment. She was given the divorce asked for.

Margaret Reich also wanted to get rid of Fred Reich because of his cruelty to her. A divorce was granted.

The remainder of the day was taken up with court cases. In the long continued case of Latta vs. Latta a request to have written argument submitted to the court was granted.

A petition for a divorce was filed this afternoon by Nancy Ann Jukes who avers that Jefferson Jukes, her husband, has been in the habit of swearing at her, calling her names, chasing her with butcher knives, shooting at her and otherwise amusing himself at her expense. Jefferson lives in Salina and seems to be a pretty hard case.

The Month of May.

To the O. Queen, we bring Spring's blossoms sweet and fair And lay them at thy feet To breathe their fragrance there.

The lilac's purple bloom,
The modest violet blue,
The lily and the rose,
With the buttercup's golden hue,
The geranium's fragrant glow,
And the daisy's simple flower—
A blossoms fresh and rare
Gathered from field and bower.
But a richer gift than these,
Sweet Mother, by thee was won
'neath Calvary's sorrowful cross
'Twas man to be thy son.
Then dearer than May's sweet blooms,
Are souls by grief oppressed
And child-like hearts all pure—
These gifts thou lovest best.

All kinds of country produce wanted for which we will pay the highest price.

Literary Notes.

The Forum for June will contain an article by the Rev. Dr. Charles A. Briggs, on "Church and Creed." To the same number Col. Theodore A. Dodge, perhaps our foremost military writer, will contribute an appreciative review of Von Moltke's career and its effect on the warfare of the future; Sir Charles W. Dilke writes on the New Commonwealth of Australia, and General Francis A. Walker discusses the accuracy of the census of 1890.

American Roadsters and Road Riders, by Charles Arnold McCully, with numerous illustrations of famous trotters and trotting masters, will form one of the attractive features of Harper's Weekly to be published May 27th.

Navarre Nuggets.

Special REFLECTOR Correspondence.

NAVARRIE, May 23.—Those who said there would be no rain before Sunday or Monday have proved themselves to be about as correct as the signal service, but plenty of rain is good for wheat and grass.

Some pieces of oats are getting pretty full of weeds.

Several pieces of corn have been replanted where the corn failed to grow for different causes.

D. B. Horton is preparing to take the upper story from his store building as soon as the weather permits.

Mrs. J. D. Moore and daughter came from Hope Tuesday to visit friends in the vicinity of Belle Springs.

A number of ladies spent the day very pleasantly with Mrs. Sterner last Wednesday. The quilting and visiting with the neighbors was enjoyed by all.

Morrison & Dill, of Hope, are driving a meat wagon through the country twice a week; which is a much appreciated convenience at this busy season of the year.

Belle Springs creamery men have been busy hauling coal for a few days. Work on roads has been postponed until the mud dries up.

Detroit Driftings.

SPECIAL REFLECTOR Correspondence.

DETROIT, May 26.—The listed corn was washed some by the rain last Wednesday night, but we think there was more good than harm done.

Mrs. Bland, our pastor's wife, received quite a number of nice presents last Wednesday on her 31st birthday anniversary. Among those received were a hanging lamp and a pair of vases, given by the little folks of the Young People's Christian Union; a photograph album, given by her Sunday school, and a number of other gifts.

Our school was out last Friday and the children will have a vacation of about three months.

Mr. Light and scholars will picnic at Terrapin Lake next Thursday. Mr. Light has given us an excellent school and his work has been received with universal satisfaction.

The D. M. S. club meets every Thursday night.

There were quite a number of the boys in town last Thursday from some cause or other. Wonder what it could have been?

There are church services held at Detroit every two weeks. JACK.

The R. M. White Machine company will do any kind of work that you need and their work is always the best.
